

There Are Times

There are times when...
Leaves seem faded...
skies seem to be gray..
people are dreary and...
life seems prosaic...
but...
remember that for
every faded leaf
there is a bud...
for every gray sky
there is a rainbow...
when people seem dreary
that laughter will follow...
and most importantly
if life seems to be prosaic...
we must take it in stride and know that tomorrow will be a better day!
